2015 SPRING CONFERENCE
March 11–13, 2015
Hilton Orange County/Costa Mesa | 3050 Bristol St., Costa Mesa, CA 92626
Welcome to the CCCCSSAA's Spring 2015 Conference!

Three years ago, past president, Peter White wrote the following statement in his welcome to the CSSSO's

“There are only two certainties in the current crisis:

- community colleges as we have known them will emerge as profoundly altered places for students, faculty, staff, and administrators...and,
- regardless of our funding and staffing challenges, students will still need the range of support that Student Services has traditionally provided to them...”

His words may be truer than I think even he anticipated!

The anticipated challenges and changes are now being implemented and are certainly altering the landscape of our campuses and the nature of our work. We are now recognizing the actual impacts of SSSP, Equity and other student success initiatives (mandates) as they play out on our campuses and in our State and local budgets. Applied accountability measures, accreditation standards and learning outcomes bring some of our efforts into sharper focus and for others, leave us grasping for our bifocals, attempting to make meaning of a changed demographic and campus culture.

The CCCCO has, and continues to look to us for feedback, leadership and vision regarding the present and future state of student services. As an association, we are active on a variety of committees statewide that are shaping so much of our work for the next decade. We have been involved advocates for students and have greatly impacted the CCC system. To continue to be effective, the collective thinking and direction that can come from our conference is paramount. It serves as a foundation for connecting with your state and regional colleagues as well as getting involved at a higher level. From our regional board and exec team down through new CSSSOs, we need this time to recognize how new initiatives, funding and mandates have altered our campuses, our work and our students. Our Ultimate, hope is to move the needle...increasing student success and completion for the students we serve.

The Spring 2015 conference is designed as a hands-on, working and sharing opportunity for student services leaders. We have largely set aside the traditional conference format of breakouts and are attempting as much as possible to keep discussions and presentations with all of you in the room. Come prepared to listen, learn, teach, laugh and become involved in the very important “meaning making” which can support your own campus leadership as well as statewide efforts.
